Re: Delphi Corporation
Case No. 05-44481 (RDD)
NOTICE OF RECLAMATION DEMAND BY CARLISLE
ENGINEERED PRODUCTS, INC. filed on October 18, 2005
(Docket No. 316)

Dear Sir/Madam:

OF COUNSEL:
JAMES E. DWYER
DANIEL J. FRENCH
EDWARDS, GREEN &
GARY J. LAVINE<sup>1, 2</sup>
SIDNEY I. MANIS
THOMAS C. TAYLOR<sup>3, 4</sup>

In our correspondence to you dated October 17, 2005, we enclosed a Notice of Reclamation Demand by Carlisle Engineered Products, Inc. along with a Certificate of Service for filing with the Court using the conventional method of filing and stated in our letter that once the PACER system was back up and running, we would file the documents electronically. However, on October 18, 2005, we received via e-mail a Notice of Electronic Filing of the above-referenced document (Docket No. 316).

JAWLENT M. ORDWAY, JR.

My assistant spoke today with Juanita at the IIIIP Desk of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York who advised her that if we had received Notice of Electronic Filing with a docket number that meant that the clerk had filed the document and that it would not be necessary for us to do a duplicate electronic filing of the same document so long as we log onto the PACER system this afternoon and confirm it is there. We have confirmed that the document is there under Docket No. 316 and will, therefore, not be doing a duplicate electronic filing.

Very truly yours,

GREEN & SEIFTER, ATTORNEYS, PLLC
